Approach

LÉ VIAËR MARCHI is an annual community gathering, representing the heart of Guernsey and taking place in the heart of Guernsey at the island's historic Saumarez Park. Over 40 years, NTG's Viaër Marchi has become a much anticipated and hugely enjoyable event. Each year over 6,000 people gather in the park, to meet, greet, share and enjoy an assembly of Guernsey's favourite traditions. Amidst the hub-bub, we lay out the best of Guernsey's heritage and traditional skills. Our crowd-goers are entertained by perennial favourites and we also welcome new artists, crafters and musicians each year. Lé Viaër Marchi is an evolving place, which takes stock of tradition, but welcomes new generations and new spirit, always exemplifying the very best of Guernsey culture. Each year, Lé Viaër Marchi signs up many new members for the National Trust of Guernsey and for weeks after the event, more new members also sign up. These people have enjoyed the spirit of Lé Viaër Marchi and want to support island heritage and National Trust of Guernsey into the future.

Relevance to INTO members

LÉ VIAËR MARCHI is a great example of how to involve and enthuse existing and potential members of INTO organisations about their local heritage.

Every nation or area has its own special heritage and associated cultural, craft and products, which an event like Lé Viaër Marchi vigorously promotes.

Maintaining and increasing membership is vital to ensuring a vibrant and active organisation.

Progress

After 40 years of running Lé Viaër Marchi it is a challenge to keep it as an attractive and relevant event.

Providing a memorable event for the next generation of members is a vital consideration. We wish people to remember and anticipate Lé Viaër Marchi as an enjoyable event to support in the future - with their children and so on, for years to come.
