

5th Czech National Trust anniversary

 New meaning to old values

Czech National Trust & International National Trusts Organisation (INTO)

Czech National Trust and the International National Trusts Organisation (INTO) invite you to an international conference and reception celebrating the 5th anniversary of the launch of the Czech National Trust.

Prominent international heritage experts will discuss with their Czech counterparts the role of heritage in 21st century, finding new ways of financing heritage, how to make it self supporting, relevant to people and communities, sustainable and values-led.

Guest of honour - Tim Parker, Chairman of the National Trust of England, Wales and Northern Ireland, the world largest organisation for the preservation of cultural heritage, gardens and landscapes. It was founded at the end of 19th century, it has 5.7 million members and 65 000 volunteers.

Our Heritage - For ever, for everyone Tuesday, 18th June 2019

Strahov Monastery at Prague Castle, the Summer Refectory
Strahovske nadvori 1/132, 118 00 Praha 1 – Hradcany, Czech Republic

Under the auspices of Petr Burgr, Council member responsible for Arts and Culture, Prague 1 and Prof. Ing. arch. Ladislav Labus, Hon. FAIA, the Dean of the Faculty of Architecture, CTU Prague.

Czech National Trust is an independent, not for profit charitable organisation and is a member of the international network of National Trusts, INTO. Our aim is to support the preservation of Czech cultural heritage and landscapes regardless of ownership by means of developing a strong volunteer base, encouraging involvement of local communities and finding new means of finance.
